

Main Business Trust

This holds all your assets and files taxes.

Main LLC

This LLC is for the Public. You operate entirely from this entity and don't let anyone know that you even have a Trust. If they look it up they could (in some states) see that a Trust is the Member, but in most states, your Trust does NOT have to be filed anywhere. All taxes flow through this LLC.

Business LLC

Put all business that you are involved in within this first LLC.

MLM's or any other business that you have contact and exposure to possible lawsuits from others.

Investment LLC

Your investments go here. These investments should have NO LIABILITY with the public so they are safe from lawsuits. If they do have exposure put them into the Business LLC.

Real Estate LLC

All Real Estate should have liens for 125% of the value of the property
